Mr. Allen W. Dulles

Dear Mr. Dulles:

I have not written you following my pleasant meeting with you and Lyman Kirkpatrick on February 24, 1961, since you seemed to have your hands rather full.

I am now writing to formally invite you to address the 71st annual meeting of The Virginia State Bar Association at "The Greenbrier", White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia, on Friday evening, August 4, 1961, at 9:00 o'clock P.M. (E.S.T.).

You advised me on February 24th that you could accept provided the Congress was still in session, which seems very likely, and that your presence was not required abroad at that time. You also said that Mrs. Dulles would accompany you if she was in town.

The meeting begins with the President's reception on Thursday, August 3rd at 6 P.M. and concludes with the banquet on Saturday, August 5th at 7:30 P.M.

Of course, we would expect you and Mrs. Dulles to be guests of the Association and be with us for the entire meeting.

You said that you would expect to fly to the meeting and I would appreciate your advice as to your expected time of arrival and departure so we can have you met at the air-field and make the necessary room reservations.

As I understand it you wish to speak from notes and "off the record" so we will request the members of the press to absent themselves. You did say that you had no objection to the address being taped so I assume that you would have no objection to having it taken down by the Court reporter

Dear Mr. Dulles:

Thank you for your letter of June 3, 1961, and we are looking forward to seeing you at the annual meeting of The Virginia State Bar Association.

I am counting on your presence and since we cannot delay printing the program any longer I am showing you as the speaker on Friday evening, August 4th, at 9 o'clock (Eastern Standard Time).

I shall appreciate your advice as to how you expect to travel and whether or not you will be accompanied by Mrs. Dulles.

NOTE FOR RECORD:

Subsequent to the 3 June 1961 letter to Mr. Robert J. McCandlish, Mr. Dulles determined that it would not be possible for him to speak at the annual meeting of the Virginia State Bar Association on 4 August and asked Mr. Kirkpatrick to contact Mr. McCandlish and express regrets.

Mr. Kirkpatrick did so by telephone - exploring the possibility of General Cabell, Mr. Amory or Mr. Kirkpatrick of speaking instead of the DCI. After further consideration by Mr. Dulles, it was decided that no one from the Agency would speak at the meeting and Mr. McCandlish was so advised.

In the meantime, the program for the meeting had been printed, indicating that Mr. Dulles was to be the speaker. In order to prevent misunderstanding and any embarrassment, it was decided that Mr. Dulles would send a note of regret which could be read at the meeting. Hence the draft of letter to Mr. McCandlish (by Mr. Kirkpatrick 7/31) --

Dear Mr. Ward:

Thank you very much for your letter of 16 May inviting Mrs. Dulles and me to attend the annual meeting of the Society of the Cincinnati.

I am indeed honored by your proposal to have me elected an honorary member and to present me with the Cincinnati Eagle. However, there does not seem to be any possibility of my getting to Boston this weekend and, therefore, I must regretfully decline your kind invitation. It was very thoughtful of you to ask Mrs.
Dulles and me to join you on this particular occasion and I am sorry that I cannot make it at this time.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
